Dear Parents and Students,

It is with mixed emotions that I write to you today. After two fulfilling years as your Head of School, I have made the difficult decision to take a role at another academy from Easter. Whilst I am excited about this new opportunity, saying goodbye to Outwood Academy Brumby and its wonderful community will make it bittersweet.

The past two years have been an incredible journey; we have shared in triumphs and challenges, watched children blossom into young adults, and fostered a vibrant learning environment together.

Seeing your children develop and thrive has been the greatest privilege of my time here. I am grateful for the trust you have placed in me and the opportunities you have given me to guide and support your families. I will continue to do my absolute best for your children for the next three months.

To ensure a smooth transition, the search for my successor is already underway. The job advert has been launched, and a thorough recruitment process will soon begin. I have full confidence that the Trust will find someone who embodies the values and spirit of Brumby and continues to build upon the strong foundation we have established.

As we approach the festive season, I want to wish you all a very Merry Christmas. May your homes be filled with joy, laughter, and cherished memories. I am confident that Brumby will continue to shine brightly in the new year and beyond.

While I may be moving on, my heart will always hold a special place for this school and its remarkable families.

With warmest wishes.

Amber Bradley
Head of School
