Dear Parent/Carer

We are pleased to inform you that the academy has acquired 40 free places for the Dan Freedman Event, Ready, Set, Read!, which is taking place as part of the North Lincolnshire Year of Reading. The event will be held at the Baths Hall on Wednesday 28th June 2023 from 1pm - 2:30pm.

In order to keep the cost of the event free, students will be walking to the Baths Hall and ask that you either collect your child at 2:30pm from the event or give them permission to walk home. Should you prefer to collect your child from the academy, staff will be walking back and arriving at approximately 3:00pm. Due to there only being 40 places available, students names will be drawn at random and successful students will be notified by text.

Students will be having an early lunch at 11:45am as we will be leaving the academy at 12:15pm in order for us to arrive promptly at the Baths Hall.

Should you like your child to attend, please complete and return the attached permission slip to Miss Sutton by no later than Monday 5th June 2023, confirming whether your child will be collected or walking home. Please also indicate if your child has any medical requirements and an emergency contact number.

During the event, the author, Dan Freedman will cover the power of reading and writing about what you love, resilience and following your passion. In addition, Dan Freedman has offered a book signing at the end of the session. A local bookshop has kindly offered to sell a selection of his books at a discounted price especially for this event. If your child is picked to attend the event, a letter and form will be sent to you explaining how these may be ordered should you wish to purchase one for signing. Books will be collected from the Baths Hall on the day of the event.

If you would like further information about Dan Freedman, please visit his website at <https://www.danfreedman.co.uk/>

Yours faithfully

Miss R Sutton
